

THE TWILIGHT OWL

Annie Memhard Braunstein, Editor

2009 Season: Issue 5

Hands Off the Water Tank!

It is very important that parents instruct their children that under no circumstances should they throw rocks at the water tank by the reservoir! The water tank has a fiberglass coating which protects the paint surface from rust. A few weeks ago a group of children was seen throwing rocks at the tank, and repair of the damages will occupy Nathan and his crew for at least a day. It is understood that the kids (and parents) probably didn't know about the fiberglass coating, but now they do. Please explain to them how important this is! Thank you.

Joe Kieffer

Something Smells Fishy at the Reservoir

Superintendent Nathan Hommel helps transfer fish to buckets and hands them off to eager young trout stockers

On Wednesday, July 15, at 1:00, the much-anticipated fish stocking took place at the lower reservoir. Organized by Jim Douglass and facilitated by Nathan Hommel, a truck loaded with 100 beautiful trout arrived, ready to make their home in Twilight's freshly renovated reservoir. Twilight kids, teens, and adults were out (continued on page 5)

Events at a Glance

Saturday, August 1

- 9:00 am – Annual Cottagers' Meeting at All Angels
- 12:00 pm – Owl Matches v. Onteora at the Twilight tennis courts
- 6:30 pm – All Angels benefit cabaret at the Clubhouse

Friday, August 7

- 9:30 am – Art Show entries must be dropped at Clubhouse
- 9:30 am – Path clearing volunteers meet at Wingate Field

Saturday, August 8

- 4:00 – 7:00 pm – Art Show programming at the Clubhouse

Sunday, August 9

- 1:00 – 5:00 pm – Art Show at Clubhouse

Friday, August 14 – DROP IN DINNER CANCELLED

Saturday, August 15

- 7:00 pm – Family campout at the Golfcourse

Sports Saturday with John "Gordo" Gordon 2009 Twelka Cup Results

Another overcast and seasonally cool Sunday in this miserable month of July was the setting for the fourth annual Ping Pong competition in pursuit of the heralded Twelka Cup! This year, the venue was the Elka Park clubhouse living room, where more than seventy enthusiastic and sometimes over exuberant fans jammed every available seat to witness (once again) pong history in the making. Competing were Elka Park's finest bladespersons versus Twilight Park's equally impressive paddle mavens, in a war to determine the incalculable bragging rights for the next year.

Before we get to the nexus of this reportage, it might be informative to provide the reader with some inside information on the gamesmanship and strategic negotiations that preceded (and possibly influenced) the ultimate outcome.

Twilight Co-Captains Ellen Lasch and John "Gordo" Gordon, stung by the bitter 2008 defeat to the Elkan contingent, collectively (continued on page 6)

Twilight Path Clearing

Thanks to a group of volunteers – both children and adults – more of the paths in the Park have been restored.

Path Clearing was a week-long volunteer special activity for the older campers, coordinated by Joanne Ainsworth. In early July, a stalwart and enthusiastic group of campers – Rory Clare, Emma Henson, Moses and Josephine Lemann, and Walker Pitts – helped rake, clear paths, and weed near the pool entrance steps. Another day, superintendent Nathan Hommel appeared at the base of the "To Church Lane" path on the first level, opposite the MacGahan cottage. Nathan had a dump truck filled with wood chips, which the campers industriously spread to smooth out the uneven ground on the path and around the new hemlock log steps the Park crew has installed. (continued on page 7)

Walker Pitts spreads wood chips with Nathan Hommel

Word of Thanks from the Historical Society

Dear Twilight Cottagers:

As a director and former president of the Mountain Top Historical Society I am writing to express our gratitude and appreciation of kindness over many, many years for the use of the Clubhouse as a place in which to present our lectures. The Clubhouse use has provided a beautiful atmosphere for a greater appreciation of the area.

Now we feel, having developed our own buildings, it is time to introduce them to our members and the public. What we have now represents a tremendous number of hours over 35 years of hard work by many volunteers.

Thank you so much for kind hospitality in the past years.

Sincerely,

Justine L. Hommel
Director
The Mountain Top Historical Society

This Meal is a Hole in One!

You don't have to be a golfer to enjoy the food at the Rip Van Winkle Country Club in Palenville. Anyone can enjoy the delicious lunches and dinners in the attractive Tavern Room overlooking the golf course. The hamburgers with sweet potato fries are outstanding. The specials menu changes frequently. Recently, a chipotle chicken wrap and a fried cod sandwich received rave reviews. Whether you are finishing up a round of golf or returning from shopping in Kingston, the restaurant at the Rip Van Winkle Country Club is well worth a visit.

The Tavern Room is open for dinner Tuesday through Saturday. Tuesday night is the tavern menu. Wednesday is the International Pasta Night - a great hit with families with children. Thursday through Saturday has a more sophisticated and varied menu.

The Rip Van Winkle Country Club is family owned and very friendly. Newly renovated, the historic colonial style home is very attractively decorated with paintings by local artists. The large dining area and intimate dining room with fireplace - the home's original living room - make the club a perfect spot for a wedding, rehearsal dinner or other special occasion.

The Rip Van Winkle Country Club is located on Route 23A, just past the stop light in Palenville. For more information or reservations, call (518) 678-9779.

Joanne Ainsworth

News from the Bears

Rory Clare: I like camp! We play sports. This week we are playing baseball. I like it. My favorite part of camp is art. This week we are doing a play. I am Art Power Girl. I can make any art I want.

Josephine Lemann: My favorite thing at camp is swimming because I get to take off my shoes! My character in the play is Sonic Slash. I can understand robots, I can make shields with sound, and I can hear everything in the world in any language. I think the play will be really fun.

Moses Lemann: I baked blueberry cake, made cheese strata and cooked stuffed French toast for the drop-in dinner. About 120 people showed up for the drop-in dinner. In the morning we played badminton, and as always we had swimming and tennis lessons.

Jake Maurer: This week we are going to do a play. There are six characters, some are good and some are bad. My name is Star Killer. I am evil! We play baseball in the mornings and work on our play in the afternoon.

Emma Henson: We are going to have a play. In the play my character is Eagle Eye. I can see through stuff and go through walls. We play baseball also. My favorite thing at camp is going swimming with my friends.

Walker Pitts: Camp is fun. Baseball is awesome! The pool is awesome! Swimming lessons are awesome! Art is awesome! Basically I love camp! I have a lot of good friends. They are awesome to play with. We play a lot of games, and I can't wait for next year!

Ava Maurer: I like to play at camp. I like to have snack and I forgot all the rest. But I love camp!

Sleep Under the Starry Skies

Saturday, August 15 at 7:00 pm

Twilight Golf Course

July's family campout was a huge success, so we're doing it again! Everyone is invited to camp out at the Golf Course on August 15. Come earlier in the afternoon to set up your tent if you want to spend the night, or just stop by for a cook-out, s'mores and ghost stories. All ages welcome.

Bring your own food, drinks, and gear

Pack it In, Pack it Out: each family must remove their own trash, so bring garbage and recycling bags

62nd Annual Twilight Park Art Exhibition

Saturday and Sunday, August 8 and 9
Twilight Park Clubhouse

ART SHOW EVENTS

Special Educational Tour of the Art

Saturday, August 8, 4 – 5 pm

A special feature of this year's show is a "walk through lecture" about the art in the show, with specific discussions of the judges' awards. Gracia Dayton, Immediate Past President of the New England Watercolor Society, well-known Mountain Top artist, and Chairman of the Twilight Art Committee, will conduct the "walk through."

Wine Reception

Saturday, August 8, 5 – 7 pm

Artist Demonstration

Sunday, August 9, 3 – 4 pm

Philip DePoala of Saugerties, currently enrolled at the Pratt Institute in Brooklyn, will demonstrate his approach to collage. DePoala was a Merit Award winner for his collage in the Twilight Art Show in 2008 just after completing a mixed media installation at Munson-William-Proctor Art Museum in Utica, NY. A mixed media installation installed on the Pratt Campus in Brooklyn during November and December of 2008 included metal, wood, painting, and neon light constructions averaging eight feet in height.

ADMISSION

- Regular admission of $5.00 includes the Saturday wine reception and all Sunday activities
- Special admission of $10.00 includes the Educational Tour of the Art and all other Art Show events

All Angels Takes Care of Your Little Angels

There will be bags of crayons and coloring books at the back of the church during Sunday services. Children are always welcome at church!

If you'd like them outside for the gospel & sermon, Anne Mack & Co. would be happy to take them to the playground.

Acolytes Needed for August

Acolytes are needed at All Angels Church for the month of August. Children and teens ages 7+ are welcome. Contact Anne Mack at 589-6296 if you are interested.

News from the All Angels Vestry

Lemonade on the Lawn continues on, every Sunday following the worship service. All are welcome! Even if you have not come for worship, please feel free to stop by to say hello over a glass of lemonade and some cookies!

Britton and Melina Fisher will be our host couple for Lemonade on August 2, and Anne Mack will be our hostess for August 9. We are looking for people who would like to take charge of a Lemonade social. It's very simple – the supplies are kept in the church, an addition of cookies or biscuits will be appreciated, as well. Please contact me to volunteer.

Doug Hulse
Senior Warden

News from the All Angels Auxiliary

Beatles Cabaret: Saturday, August 1

Last chance to make your reservations! Cocktail hour and buffet of sumptuous food will be provided at 6:30. Soft drinks will be available, and you may also bring your own choice of BYO beverage. Show starts promptly at 7:30. Please – no recording devices, no cell phone or iPod cameras and no digital cameras during the performance, as these are a distraction to our performers.

Reservation forms have been sent to your mailboxes at the Gate House. However, for your convenience an additional form is included in this publication of the Owl. Send your reservations at $35/ person to Barbara Swanson. Angel contributions of any designation to our worthy cause are always appreciated. Baby sitting is available next door at the Camp Building.

We are looking forward to this evening of fun and musical entertainment provided by our talented Twilights, under the creative direction of Jim Martocci! To add to the fun, a Magical Mystery Auctioneer will be conducting a live auction featuring four Beatle posters signed by our Twilight cast! The live auction will take place immediately following the Cabaret, so be sure to bring your cash or check book and bid hearty as the party continues!

Karen Hulse
Auxiliary President

The deadline for the next Owl is Monday, August 10. Submissions may be dropped in my mailbox at the gatehouse or e-mailed to me at TwilightParkOwl@gmail.com.

It's a Small World After All

The association for which I work, the Special Libraries Association (SLA), has been celebrating its centennial this year. Our members have been working on projects throughout the year to celebrate our rich history and also plan for the future of the profession and how the association can be positioned to meet future needs. Recently, the Centennial Commission map of past conferences caught my eye. Imagine my surprise when I noted that Haines Falls was the site of SLA's 1915 annual conference. The only possible place could be Twilight Park. Could this be? How? Where? What was it like? Time for a bit of research into our archives.

Only six years young, SLA held its 1915 annual conference in conjunction with the New York Library Association. The program placed emphasis on the library field of possible service rather than on matters of technique. Men of note from other professions were also invited to address the conference.

The headquarters hotel was Squirrel Inn. Santa Cruz Inn and the cottages were also used to house the delegates. Santa Cruz was described as the alternate selection for those who wanted the quiet and rest of the mountains. A five-minute hike through the woods and you would be at the headquarters hotel. Rates were $2.50 per day or $3.00 if you wanted a private bath. Groups might rent a cottage. The marketing for the conference outlined various transportation options. You would travel "but six hours by rail from New York City" (100 miles from Manhattan) where the Squirrel Inn stage met all trains.

SLA had 354 members from every section of the U.S. and foreign countries in 1915. Leaders also discussed the need for a Headquarters Office to facilitate the needs of this growing membership. That headquarters office was established and SLA's membership has grown to over 11,000 members in 75 countries. I took the day of our actual founding, July 2, as an opportunity to walk around the Park and try to envision what our earliest members would have been thinking as they convened in this special place. And to envision how the association of today can best meet the needs of a growing, diverse membership. Through the wonders of technology, I was able to shift my office to the Janeway cottage front porch for the month of July.

Linda Broussard

Tennis Shorts

2009 Owl Matches

Saturday, August 1

Matches start at 12:00 pm, cookout around 2:30 pm

Twilight Tennis Courts

Drop by the tennis courts on Saturday for the Owl Matches as Team Twilight battles Team Onteora! Come support this great tennis tradition and watch some incredible tennis. There will be a cookout after the matches, around 2:30. BYOB.

Women's Singles

Kimmy McMenamin

Men's Singles

Jim McMenamin

Women's Doubles

Paula Canning
Judy Sheridan

Men's Doubles

Pete Bennett
Bob Sheridan

Mixed Doubles

Laura Clare
Scott Graves

Junior Doubles

Will Bennett
Matt Roll

Mother-Son Tennis Tournament Results

The First Annual Mother-Son Tennis Tournament was held this past weekend on the damp but playable Twilight courts. Friday evening's rain washed out all hope for the original schedule, but Darren was on the courts by 7:00 Saturday morning to ready the situation and declared the courts playable by midday. Thank you Darren!

Eight teams competed in the first ever event:

- Mel and Will Bennett
- Grace Boyle and her "son for the day," Brit Fisher
- Laura and Ryan Clare
- Mary and Chris Douglass
- Melina Martocci Fisher and her "adoptee," Brendon Clare
- Jessica and Aidan Gibbons
- Rachel and Matt Roll
- Kathryn and Blaise Tangney

Very tough and competitive matches were enjoyed by all. In the end, Matt and Rachel Roll triumphed over Catherine and Blaise Tangney (of Elka Park) to claim the winners' ribbons (6-4, 7-6). As is always the case when mothers are involved, there was lots of food and snacks enjoyed throughout the tourney. More importantly, great fun and camaraderie were had by all the players and their families.

All you Mothers, Grandmothers, Godmothers and "substitute" mothers: start practicing your lobs and slice shots now for next July's event to be held the third Friday in July.

Mel Bennett

Did You Know...

Rev. Beth Humphrey is our guest minister for July 26 through August 2. She is the chaplain to boys in grades four through eight at St. Albans School in Alexandria, Virginia.

During the Morning Prayer service on July 26 she mentioned that she noticed the plaque dedicating the church's bell tower to Bishop Satterlee. Historically, Bishop Satterlee rented the cottage owned by his cousin, artist Walter Satterlee, now owned by Joe Keiffer! The following are comments from Rev. Humphrey:

"As a chaplain of St. Albans School on the grounds of the National Cathedral in Washington, DC, I am well acquainted with the Right Reverend Henry Y. Satterlee, first diocesan bishop of Washington and founder of the Cathedral Church of St. Peter and St. Paul (aka the Washington National Cathedral). How wonderful to find so many connections between Bishop Satterlee and Twilight Park! Bishop Satterlee spent many summers here, even after he became Bishop of Washington in 1896. He was instrumental in founding the Memorial Church of All Angels and returned each summer to Twilight Park until his death in February, 1908.

Our chapel at St. Albans School, known as the Little Sanctuary, has strong ties to Bishop Satterlee as well. It initially served both as a chapel for the boys as well as a storage facility for the beautiful (and quite large) furnishings that were donated to the Cathedral during the early years of construction. The ornately carved, huge Canterbury pulpit, for example, was stored in our school chapel for years. Bishop Satterlee's office was upstairs from the nave; we currently use that room as the sacristy. When the bishop died, only a few months after the cornerstone of the Cathedral had been laid, he was temporarily buried in the Little Sanctuary, awaiting construction of his final resting place in the Cathedral's Bethlehem Chapel.

Bishop Satterlee's name and image are never far from one's consciousness on the Cathedral Close. I would guess, however, that the boys of St. Albans know him best because our athletic field bears his name. The baseball, lacrosse, and football games are played on Satterlee-Henderson Field (the latter name honoring a legendary coach).

Coming here to Twilight Park where Bishop Satterlee spent so much time has been a pleasure; it's like meeting an old friend in a new place."

Welcome August Renters

A hearty welcome to new and returning renters to Twilight Park. We are happy to have you. As a means of introduction, here is some information regarding the persons renting cottages this August.

Ainsworth: Rev. Clifford Swartz and Kate along with Caroline (10), Ellen (7), Teddy (4) and Anna (6 months) will rent August 16 - Sept. 3 for the first time. Lynne and Steve Foote raved about Twilight to them.

Barish/Sterret: Tennis pro Darren and Marilyn will be in the cottage until mid-August.

Behlke: Lizzie Kuhlenskamp and Roy Yan will be first-time renters. Introduced by Sara Killough Dhar, Lizzie and Roy have 3 children under the age of 5: Bettina, Ava, and Lena.

Cobb: Meghan and Keith Krasney again rent the Cobb cottage with children Alexandra and Dashed.

Decker: Norah Monaco and John Galatti, along with the twins and Norah's mom, will continue their stay in Twilight.

Janeway: Dan Marcus and Kim Johnson and children return to the Janeway cottage.

McDonald: Deirdre Swords (Peter's daughter) and Bert Gossen return to Twilight August 15 – 31.

Viana: John and Ellen McGinnis and children will return to Twilight for a full month this year. John grew up in the Park, and his parents previously owned the Ferris cottage.

TROUT STOCKING – continued from page 1

in full force. With help from Nathan, the man from the trout hatchery filled buckets with water and four or five fish – a load just right for junior Twilighters to carry to and dump into the reservoir. We look forward to seeing some pictures of our local fishers with their prize catch!

Ryan Clare introduces his fish to their new home

Rory Clare and Josephine Lemann transport their fish to the reservoir

TWELKA CUP – continued from page 1

determined to give up their day jobs, suffer the tortures of the damned by hitting the road, and do whatever was necessary to return the vaunted Twelka Cup to its rightful resting place... Gordo's mantelpiece, next to the stuffed owl. (It must be admitted that the sacrifice of Mr. Gordon's day job was less taxing than it might seem, as his current day job consisted of surfing the web, pampering Miss Alice, caring for three high maintenance dachshunds, partaking of the grape, and staring interminably at Kaaterskill Clove.) There commenced a grueling, exhausting Ping Pong recruiting trip throughout the land, of six weeks duration, in pursuit of Twilights with Ping Pong talent. After week three, it became evident that the talent clearly existed, but was for the most part only available for the month of July. As the Twelka Cup Finals had heretofore always taken place in August, this posed a potential problem for the intrepid Co-Captains.

Not to worry. Co-Captain Gordon planted a seed with the Elkan powers-that-be. He indicated that extensive informal surveys of Twelka Cup aficionados at both Parks revealed that most fans would prefer a July date for the Twelka Cup Finals (better weather, more potential participants, etc.). The bait was swallowed, although Elka's Twelka Captain had a gnawing suspicion that a certain South Carolinian recruit might have something to do with the July date switch. Very perceptive, Mr. Constable! And the rest is history.

My compliments on your patience, dear reader; no need to wait a second longer:

LET ME SHOUT IT FROM THE HIGHEST CATSKILL MOUNTAIN!!
LET THE RESULTS RESOUND
THROUGHOUT THE MOUNTAINTOP!!
LET FREEDOM RING!!

TWILIGHT PARK	7
ELKA PARK	2

That's right, sports fans, the underdog Twilight Twelkans dominated the overconfident Elkans in their home arena, displaying racket skills beyond comprehension as they dominated the competition from start to finish. In a testament to both squads, this year's competition featured the highest quality of Ping Pong expertise in the history of the Twelka Cup, in this scribe's humble opinion. That being said, the Twilight Park victory was dominant, pervasive, and unrelenting.

The tone was set early on. Twilight booster Alex Sadé (still secretly married to Twilight Co-Captain Ellen Lasch) cranked up Celebration by Kool & The Gang on Elka's boom box, and the nine Twilight competitors danced to the music in a grand procession around the Ping Pong venue. Each wore, for the first time, the official Twilight uniform, a dark green tee-shirt with a fierce looking snowy owl emblazoned on the front, along with "TWILIGHT PARK" in white letters. The uniform paid huge dividends, as it was a reminder to the Twilight finalists that the success of the team was paramount, not individual performances.

Team Twilight wins back the Twelka Cup:
(back row) Will Bennett, John Gordon, Meg Pitts, Will Peters, Than "Thanimal" Ferris, Jeff Ferris;
(front row) Ellen Lasch, Ryan Clare, Laura Clare.

The kids' matches started the proceedings. In the Eleven-and-Under grouping, Twilight dynamo Ryan Clare and Elka virtuoso Aiden Gibbons dazzled the crowd with their incredible skills, with Ryan eventually notching the victory. The Twelve-through-Sixteen category featured two veterans of past Twelkan campaigns, Will Bennett from Twilight and Blaise Tangney of Elka; Will's consistency prevailed in a well-played match. Will gets extra credit for traveling from New Jersey after a family wedding in time for his match.

The Ladies provided those in attendance with three exciting, fiercely contested matches. Twilight third seed and Co-Captain Ellen Lasch bested Elka's Frances Bolithu, Elka's second seed Peggy Burke outlasted Twilight's Laura Clare, and Twilight first seed Meg Pitts defeated Elkan veteran Catherine Tangney. On a genetic note, the three Elkan women competitors are in fact sisters.

In the Men's Division, four magnificent matches transpired. The recruiting efforts of the Twilight Co-Captains now became evident, as three first-time Twelka Cup participants competed for the eventual winners: Will Peters, Jeff Ferris, and some kid from, yes, South Carolina, named Than "Thanimal" Ferris. Only wizened veteran and Twilight Co-Captain John "Gordo" Gordon had previous Twelka Cup experience. The only new face on the Elka Men's squad was Jack Stolarz, a behemoth of a man with a vicious slam who ostensibly was an "Associate Member" secretly recruited (possibly from the Elka kitchen) for the event.

Two tremendous upsets got the ball rolling for the Twilights, as tenacious fourth seed Will Peters overcame wily veteran Pat Gibbons in a closely fought match, and third seed Twiligher Jeff "The Wall" Ferris successfully overcame the numerous forehand slams of Elka Captain Rob Constable, and scored on slams of his own, sending Rob to his first Twelka Cup defeat. The victory for Jeff was accomplished in bare feet. Second seed Elka newcomer Jack Stolarz utilized brute force against John "Gordo" Gordon's cuts and spins, and prevailed in three games. Gordon was reportedly observed taking oxygen in a back room after the match.

The final match was one for the ages: confident, trash-talking number one Elka Park seed Brian Flynn versus Twilight's recruiting triumph, Than "Thanimal" Ferris, all business on this day of reckoning. The match did not start well for Mr. Flynn, as the barefoot Mr. Ferris reeled off the first thirteen points, before Brian got in the scoring column after an uncharacteristic unforced error by Than. The early momentum was too great to overcome, and Flynn succumbed to Ferris in the first game. The second game was the climax of this year's event, as both players gave everything they had, to the delight of the bedazzled fans. Slam was met with counter slam, rallies of ten or more shots were commonplace, and incredible offense was counterbalanced by equally amazing defense. This battle of Titans ended with a significant victory, two games to none, for Twilight sensation Than Ferris!

2009 Twelka Cup players

So there you have it! Twilight Park won seven of nine matches to take home the vaunted Twelka Cup for the second time in four years. Next year, the venue returns to Twilight's Clubhouse. Time will tell whether next year's event will transpire in July or August. One thing is clear, however: Elka Park will be loaded for bear and looking for revenge, while Twilight Park will assuredly not rest on its laurels. Gordon & Lasch are already planning their 2010 recruiting trip. In the meantime, Twilight will savor its victory for the next twelve or thirteen months!

PATH CLEARING – continued from page 1

Cottager Bob Sheridan also came, and the campers gave their advice as to which tree should sport the new yellow Path signs that the campers had helped paint.

Campers (left to right) Walker Pitts, Rory Clare, Moses Lemann, Emma Henson and Josephine Lemann help Bob Sheridan (rear) install one of the new Path signs

For our adult volunteers, special thanks go to Chardie Hay, who made the wooden path signs, Joanne Ainsworth, who painted the signs with the campers, and Bob Sheridan, who drilled the holes in the signs and nailed them to the trees. Thanks also to Nathan Hommel and the Park crew, who have replaced rotten steps and have added woodchips and gravel to smooth over rough patches.

The best way to maintain the historic paths is TO USE THEM!

To date, the paths cleared are:

- Wingate Path: from Hemlock Road on the third level, to Wingate Field
- Squirrel Path: from Wingate Field, to the Pool parking lot across from the Pool
- Church Lane Path: from first level next to Tadler, to Church Lane Hill by Hay and Keiffer
- Cherry Path: from first level across from tennis courts, to second level next to McCarrick, across from Braunstein
- Pool Path: from across from Santa Cruz entrance, to rear of pool

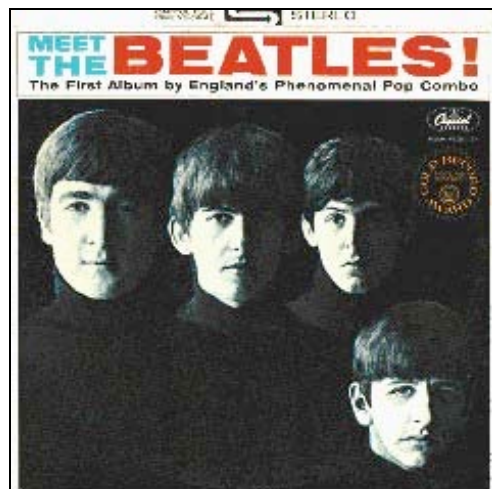

Follow the signs!

The next volunteer path opportunity will be Friday, August 7. Meet at Wingate Field at 9:30 with a rake and clippers.

SLOW DOWN!

Please keep in mind that the speed limit within Twilight Park is 20 miles per hour at all times.

15 mph is usually plenty, but if you must, go 20.

The Time is Getting Near The Anticipation is Palpable...

See Twilight's own Beatlemaniacs perform songs close to their hearts... (make that close to their rubber souls!)

Please fill out the attached form and leave it in the Swanson box at the gatehouse with your check(s).

All Angels Benefit Reservation Form

Name _____

Number in party _____

Check off one:

_____ Regular Admission: $35 per person

_____ Angel: $100 per person

_____ Archangel: $250 per person

_____ Heavenly Host: $500 per person

_____ Special Contribution: $ _____

Make check for benefit payable to

All Angels Women's Association

Baby Sitting Option in Camp House

Senior counselors Sandy Truesdell and Beth Carlson will offer group childcare in the Camp Building, next door to the Clubhouse.

- 6:30-9:30 pm
- $20 for the first child; $15 for each additional child in the same family
- Includes expert entertainment, pizza, and juice

Number of children _____

Ages of children _____

Total Amount _____

*Make check for baby sitting payable to Cash