

THE TWILIGHT OWL

Ariana Tadler Paterson and Penelope Tadler, Editors

2010 Season: Issue 2

HAPPY FOURTH OF JULY!

Summer 2010 in Twilight Park is now in full swing, with loads of opportunities to have fun, relax and enjoy time with family and friends, new and old!

Whether rain or shine, Twilight has much to offer, and we hope that you will take the time to appreciate even the smallest of those special moments that so many of us hold dear from years past.

Of course, you can go to the pool to soak in some rays, or hit the courts for a few sets of tennis or some lessons with Darren. And then there are the many places to sit and enjoy the view, paint a picture, take some photos, write poetry or your next novel or snuggle up with a good book (or, if you are like the Tadler gals, read a rag magazine about all those celebrities we never hope to be!). Whatever your pleasure, be sure to find the time to breathe in the mountain air and just be.

And this weekend, give thanks for being an American - with all the struggles that our nation faces, we know that we are among the fortunate. And for that we should be grateful.

POOL NEWS AND NEEDS....

The Twilight Park Pool officially opened last weekend. Another season of fun in the sun is ahead, with a few upgrades completed and a few items needed.

Kathy Hersey and Dawn McCarrick are yet again our esteemed Chair Ladies. They are looking to spruce up the Pool House with a few items to make the residence a bit homier for Sandy Truesdale and another lifeguard expected to be in residence this season. So if you happen to have an extra coffee table, a few wooden chairs, some night stands, a bureau or dresser, some table lamps or anything else that you think might make the Pool House a bit cozier, please give Kathy or Dawn a call or drop them an email.

THE PRIVILEGE OF DEATH

HOW THINGS WENT

Saturday, July 10th at 2PM
Saturday, July 8th at 8PM
Sunday, July 11th at 2PM

"The Privilege of Death/How Things Went from Bad to Good"

A note from Deborah Dobski...

As many of you know, I have been working with a group of artists, writers, actors, musicians, and filmmakers developing an original work for production here on the mountain top, "The Privilege of Death/How Things Went From Bad to Good".

The play goes up the second weekend in July at The Doctorow Center for the Arts in Hunter. We have four performances: Friday, July 9th at 8PM; Saturday, July 10th at 2PM and 8PM; and Sunday, July 11th at 2PM. The Sunday matinee will be followed by a BBQ/cast party behind the Red Barn to which the audience is invited.

As so often happens during the season on the mountaintop, events happen simultaneously. Me & My Friends Productions are eager that you will experience our multimedia extravaganza including live original music, an opera singer, three triangular-screen film projections, dance, puppetry and so on. Though the Tri Park cocktail party is Friday evening, perhaps you would still consider attending the 8PM opening night performance? That's an entirely doable possibility, and we'd so appreciate seeing you on opening night. And, those who plan to attend the Hunter Foundation's benefit on Saturday night, perhaps would attend one of our matinees?

Please support original work on the mountaintop by attending one of these unique performances.

You can purchase tickets from the CMF by calling 263-2063, or visit us at www.privilegefodeath.com and buy tickets online.

Welcome New Twilighters!

Please welcome the Webers!

B.J. and Sheila Weber are thrilled to have bought Annette Hall's cottage.

Sheila writes:

Thank you for your patience as we have our work hats on while putting the house in shape. We also thank you for your patience due to how long it took us to finally become owners! We think it's possible that we could win the longest renter award at Twilight since we started renting 21 years ago when Rachel (now 23) was two-years-old and Maxwell (now 25) was four. Max and Rachel attended Twilight summer camp for about a decade during the years when Megan Ainsworth and David Swanson and their generation were counselors. By way of explanation, take note that our finally buying in Twilight coincided with the end of 20 years of private school and college tuition bills!

A Thank You Note from the Hommel Family

The Board of Directors:

We, the family of Hillard Hommel, would like to thank you for your thoughtful donation to the Haines Falls Volunteer Company in memory of Hillard.

In 1969 when Hillard agreed to serve as superintendant, he accepted it as an opportunity to provide for his family, in a pleasant place, doing the sort of things he could best and enjoyed doing the most. Hillard was a man who liked challenges and Twilight Park certainly provided them, sometimes more than he needed. Finding the solutions provided him with a life that was not only unusual, but satisfying.

By the time of his retirement 28 years later, he had established many lasting relationships that enriched his life and that of his family. Interest and concern remained with him for the rest of his life.

Hillard often said that he had enjoyed a good life, and he did. Thank you for making his "Good Life" possible.
